Eschatology: The Last Things

(Repeat of February 20 workshop)

Presenter: Loretta Ortego

Level II, III, IV: Methods or Elective, 3 credits, 2 hours

This workshop will explore the Church's teachings on Death, Particular Judgment, Heaven, Hell, Purgatory, and Final Judgment. Practical examples of how to teach this material to students will also be shared.

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Praying with St. Paul

Presenter: Deacon Chuck Ortego

Level III, IV, V, VI: Elective 3 credits, 2 hours

This workshop will explore the life of St. Peter and his reactions to key moments with Christ. These moments will then be applied to our spiritual lives and the lives of those whom we teach.

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Social Media Awareness

Presenters: Monica Rougeau and Mike Norris

Level III, IV, V, VI: Elective 3 credits, 2 hours

Social Media can be a very powerful resource; however, with that power come tremendous responsibilities. This workshop will cover:

- Your digital footprint—Who looks at your digital content now and in the future
- Setting Parameters—The dangers of addiction
- Identity Through Social Media—"Likes" do not determine your value
- Cyber bullying—Why is it so easy and how do we stop it
- Safety issues—Setting usage parameters, security settings and accountability
- Sexting—Potential consequences, including possible legal consequences

TUESDAY, June 5, 2018

Immaculata Center - 1408 Carmel Drive, Lafayette, LA 70501

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.

Preparing Children for Liturgy

Presenter: Stephanie Manuel

Level IV: Preparing Liturgies for Children: 3 credits, 2 hours

or Level II: Methods 3 credits, 2 hours

Catechists will discuss and share ideas on how to fully prepare children to participate in the Liturgy. Please come prepared to share your own ideas as well as listen to others share theirs.

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Prayer Experiences for Teenagers

Presenter: Angie Aguillard

Level II, III, IV, or V: High School Methods, 3 credits, 2 hour

This workshop will present practical prayer experiences that have been tested and proven to be effective with teenagers. Please come expecting to experience the same for yourself and leave with actual prayer resources to share with your students to touch their hearts and have them experience Jesus in a concrete and moving way. As catechists we want to give our students the knowledge to defend their faith and experiences of Christ in prayer to connect their knowledge to their hearts.

9:00 a.m. - 12:00 Noon

Church History

Presenter: Rev. Mitchell Guidry

This workshop cannot be repeated for credits or hours

Level V: 6 credits, 3 hours

This workshop covers the history of Christianity, beginning with an overview of Judaism, the early development and spread of the Christian Church, and major events in the Church's history to the present time

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Connecting the Church Parish/Classroom to the Home

Presenter: John Braham

Level III, IV, V, VI: Elective 3 credits, 2 hours

This workshop will look at the various ways of communication from the church parish to the home as well as finding effective and reliable ways to help parents engage their children while following up with the weekly lessons of catechism. We will discuss various programs in which both parents and children can participate as well as the various uses of modern technology that help bridge the gap from boring to exciting.

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Catholic Social Teaching 101

Presenters: Kimberly Boudreaux, Ben Broussard, Sarah Clement, and Casey Hollier

Level: IV : Catholic Social teaching 3 credits, 2 hours

This workshop brings themes of Catholic social teaching to life and inspires us to put our faith into action. It will explore excerpts from a collaborative 7-part video series from the USCCB and Catholic Relief Services. Discussion questions will revolve around these videos and the social teaching of the Church as found in the Catechism. The staff of Catholic Relief Services of Acadiana (CSA) will offer ways to bring these teachings to life in our own community, in our schools, and in our parishes. The many programs of CSA represent a response to the Gospel's call to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the sick and imprisoned, and shelter the homeless.
